

Anthony Torres
Program Director
Kent County Veterans Treatment Court

Anthony Torres is the Kent County Veterans Treatment Court (KCVTC) Program Director. Mr. Torres is the point person who is responsible for the day-to-day operations of KCVTC, since May of 2015. KCVTC is a State of Michigan provisionally certified, problem-solving specialty court. This court which is based at 62A District Court in Wyoming, MI serves all jurisdictions within Kent County under the Honorable Pablo Cortes. Under policy, court and/or administrative direction, Mr. Torres is responsible for planning, directing, managing, and overseeing processes for The Kent County Veterans

Treatment Court. Coordinates support with Federal. State and local community-based agencies, provides highly responsible and complex support to the Veterans Treatment Court and performs other duties as assigned or delegated.

Mr. Torres' professional background includes positions with The Calhoun County (MI) Department of Public Health, various non-profit human service organizations, consulting with various entities (Non and For Profit) on program/business development and The US Department of Veterans Affairs, Veterans Benefits Administration, (VBA) as a fiduciary unit field examiner, in South-Central Texas. Mr. Torres holds a master's degree in Social Work with a Major in Policy, Planning and Administration from Western Michigan University. Mr. Torres is also a Veteran of the United States Army having served with the 1st Infantry Division (Mechanized) and The Berlin Brigade.